

Alana N. Williams

BIOGRAPHY

Alana N. Williams works with businesses and organizations to resolve unsafe workplace conflicts, such as workplace harassment, sexual harassment, retaliation, and discrimination. Alana educate employees about the importance of doing their part in deterring such harmful and unlawful behaviors and teach leadership personnel how to identify, address, and resolve conflicts in a safe, professional, and legal manner.

Alana has over 12 years of experience in the criminal justice system, specializing in law enforcement and investigations. Since 2013, Alana has been a criminal justice instructor at her alma mater, Alabama State University. She is an IADLEST (International Association of Directors of Law Enforcement Standards and Training) Nationally Certified Instructor, which allows her to teach at police academies across the United States. Also, Alana possesses an Instructor Development Certification from the FBI (Federal Bureau of Investigation), and she is a Certified EEO (Equal Employment Opportunity) Investigator.

Alana's educational background consists of a M.S. in Criminal Justice from Faulkner University and a B.S. in Criminal Justice from Alabama State University. Also, she is currently pursuing a Doctor of Criminal Justice degree, from Northcentral University.

Although born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio, and lived in Montgomery for 20+ years, Alana has recently made Birmingham, Alabama her home.

Contact Info:

 alana@solutionsJA.com

 (334) 721-3970

 www.solutionsJA.com