

Alana N. Williams

BIOGRAPHY

Alana N. Williams works with organizations to prevent and resolve unsafe workplace conflicts such as workplace harassment, sexual harassment, retaliation, and discrimination. Also, she teaches entities about the importance of leadership development to equip leaders and managers with the abilities and competence to foster productive work teams through communication, strategic planning, and problem-solving.

Alana has over 15 years of experience in the criminal justice system, specializing in law enforcement and EEO investigations including: Alana has been a collegiate criminal justice instructor for over a decade at her alma mater, Alabama State University. She is an IADLEST (International Association of Directors of Law Enforcement Standards and Training) Nationally Certified Instructor, which allows her to teach at police academies across the United States. Alana possesses an Instructor Development Certification from the FBI (Federal Bureau of Investigation). Also, she is a Certified Implicit Bias Trainer, a Conflict Resolution Consultant, and a Certified EEO (Equal Employment Opportunity) Investigator.

Alana is currently a Doctor of Criminal Justice (Candidate) from Northcentral University. She attained her M.S. in Criminal Justice from Faulkner University and a B.S. in Criminal Justice from Alabama State University.

Although born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio, she lived in Montgomery for 25+ years but recently made Birmingham, Alabama, her home.

Contact Info:

 alana@solutionsJA.com

 (334) 721-3970

 www.solutionsJA.com